OHIO DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY EMPLOYEES DONATE CARE PACKAGES TO TROOPS

WHAT: The Ohio Department of Public Safety's (ODPS) Military Committee recently joined forces with Buckeye Military Moms, Chapter 9 (Blue Star Mothers of America) by coordinating the Operation Care Campaign. Operation Care Campaign was created to collect various items from ODPS employees to be included in care packages that will be sent to troops as a "Thank You" for their service to our country. ODPS employees collected more than 40 boxes of items and will donate them to Blue Star Mothers on Friday.

WHO: George Maier, Assistant Director, ODPS
Representatives from Blue Star Military Moms, Chapter 9
Representatives from Ohio National Guard
Representatives from United States Army, 1-137 Aviation Assault Helicopter Battalion
Representatives from ODPS Military Committee

WHERE: Ohio Department of Public Safety
1970 W. Broad Street
Columbus, OH 43223
Outside main BMV entrance

WHEN: Friday, July 9 at 9:00 a.m.

BACKGROUND: Of the nearly 4,000 ODPS employees, 414 of these employees are active military personnel or veterans, with more than 135 employees serving as members of the National Guard and Reserves. The ODPS Military Committee was created to develop methods that improve the quality of life for departmental citizen soldiers, airmen, sailors, marines, coast guardsmen and their families during periods of peace, pre-deployment, deployment, and post-deployment. Recently, ODPS received the U. S. Secretary of Defense Employer Support Freedom Award, the highest U.S. Government recognition to employers for support of military employees who serve in the National Guard and Reserve.
